

How to become an Agent of Change

Help pioneer the new green frontier

WHO: You! And your idea to raise eco-awareness or implement a project where you work, live, and play.

"The Agent of Change workshop provided great training on how to develop my leadership style. It helped me move from thinking about how to change my place of employment to actually changing it." - Past Agent of Change Participant

WHAT: In this 6 week class, participants will learn basic leadership and self-organizing skills, mechanisms for social change and take initial first steps toward implementing a project of their choice in an open and supportive environment.

Project Ideas: Solar Panels at bus stops, Increasing recycling at tailgates and other events around campus, Dorm or campus-wide clothing swap, Increase in bike racks, and more!

WHERE: The Ohio Union - Lower Level Meeting Room

WHEN: 6:30 - 8:15 p.m. Five consecutive Thursdays starting January 26, 2012, plus a final meeting Thursday, April 5.

HOW: Register by contacting Sara Rampersaud at yourgreenreview@yahoo.com or 614-302-0681, or Simply Living at 614-447-0296 by January 20th.

COST: $20 for students. $35 for staff and administrators. Scholarships are available for OSU students.

Like the "Agent of Change" page on Facebook!

This program was created by the Center for Earth Leadership located in Portland, OR, and is offered locally by Simply Living.